"The Wall, Apartheid and Human Rights"

a talk and slide-show presentation by Bina Ahmad.

Cambridge Public Library
Central Square Branch
Lewis Room
45 Pearl Street
Cambridge, MA

Tuesday, January 25, 2005
7:00-8:30 PM

Bina Ahmad is a 3rd year law student at Northeastern University specializing in international human rights. From August to November 2004 she served as an intern with Al-Haq, an internationally recognized Palestinian human rights organization affiliated with the International Commission of Jurists in Geneva. As part of her internship, she traveled extensively in Palestine, documenting Israeli human rights violations against Palestinians.

She will give a report on the current status of the wall that Israel has been building in the West Bank, placing it in the broader context of human rights and Israeli policy.
